

Pursuant to Italian law art. 13 del Dlgs 196/2003 (Code of conduct for the protection of personal data), CISP guarantees that any personal data obtained through its websites will be handled in a legitimate way, legally and transparently.

Furthermore, all personal data will be:

- Collected and registered (in full accordance with the principles of security of the afore mentioned law) for legitimate administrative and other institutional purposes

- Updated regularly

- Used exclusively for the purposes they were obtained for

- Stored using all the necessary measures in order to guarantee the privacy of their subjects

The conferring of any personal data is optional. Refusal to consent to the previously mentioned uses renders impossible the processing of any personal data, nor the fulfillment of the required legal obligations. CISP recognizes the right to gain access to personal data pursuant to Italian law art.7 del D.lgs 196/03, applicable at any time by writing to CISP headquarters at Via Germanico, 198 - 00192, Roma, Italia.
