

Rights

The two decade long civil strife has denied the children and youth of Somalia their rightful entitlement to

Action:

- Installation of temporary learning structures for IDP schools;
- Construction and rehabilitation of girl-friendly education facilities;
- Provision of textbooks and learning materials;
- Support to local Community Education Committees and District Education Boards to manage prov
- Teacher training and mentoring;
- Hygiene promotion and child protection;
- Mine risk awareness education;
- Recreation and non-formal learning activities during school breaks;
- Promotion of school enrolment, retention and improved learning especially for girls;
- Peace promotion initiatives through poetry, art and drama
- Support to Disaster Risk Reduction and Emergency Support mechanisms

People :

In 2012, CISP pre-primary and primary education activities covered the areas of Mogadishu, Ceel Dhee

- 10,975 children (49% girls);
- 236 teachers (19% women);
- 49 primary schools (4 in IDP camps);