

Position:

Central Somalia

Area:

Sq Km 49,258

(Source: FAO country profile and mapping information system)

Population:

- 330,057 people
- 271,080 rural residents
- 58,977 urban residents

(Source: Population estimates by region/district UNDP Somalia, August 1 2005)

Main Centers:

- Dhusamareeb
- Cabudwaaq
- Cadaado
- Guriceel
- Ceeldheere

IDPS

146,682 people

(Source: IDPs in Somalia- Fact sheet, OCHA 2009)

Climate

Arid to semi-arid, prone to severe draught and floods. There are four seasons:

- Jilaal (December to March): warm and dry,
- Gu (April to June): main rainy season,
- Haggai (July to September): cold, cloudy and dry,
- Deyr (October to December): secondary rainy season.

Livelihood

- Livestock: camel, sheep, goats and cattle
- Agriculture: cowpea
- Minor fisheries

(Source: Somalia Livelihood Zones, FSAU Somalia, Oct 2004)

Primary school enrolment

(2005-2009)

(average for Somalia)

- 42% Male
- 23% Female

Life expectancy at birth

(average for Somalia)

50.4

(Source: International Human Development Indicators, UNDP 2010)

Malnutrition

(average for Somalia)

36% of under five children suffering from moderate and severe underweight

(Source:http://www.unicef.org/infobycountry/somalia_statistics.html)

Fertility rate (2009)

(average for Somalia)

6.4

(Source:http://www.unicef.org/infobycountry/somalia_statistics.html)